

cpas care

WE'RE ADDING THE NEW CPAS CARE COLUMN TO ON BALANCE. WE INVITE YOU TO SHARE THE GREAT THINGS THAT YOU'RE DOING IN YOUR COMMUNITY. IN A FEW SENTENCES, DESCRIBE YOUR WORK AS A VOLUNTEER, THE ORGANIZATION THAT YOU ASSIST, ITS LOCATION, LENGTH OF VOLUNTEER SERVICE, AND YOUR VOLUNTEER TITLE, IF APPLICABLE. E-MAIL INFORMATION TO EDITOR CYNTHIA HODNETT AT CYNTHIA@WICPA.ORG.

Matthew Alan Jansen, CPA

Lucretia S. Mattson, CPA,
DBA, CFP

Adam J. Mueller, CPA

Howard M. Schnoll, CPA

John N. Tesensky, CPA

MICHAEL D. DONAHUE, CPA, president of Donahue's Accounting and Tax Service SC in Grafton, is chief umpire for Grafton Little League. He schedules, trains, coordinates and pays all umpires in the league. He also coaches four teams and serves on the Board and a committee that's proposing a $1.5 million Little League park in Grafton.

PETER FAHL, an accountant at Sattell, Johnson, Appel & Co SC in Milwaukee, serves as treasurer of the Willett Foundation, an organization dedicated to raising awareness for pulmonary fibrosis and to supporting pulmonary fibrosis patients whose insurance does not cover the costs of lung transplant procedures.

JAY B. FRYMARK, CPA of Cedarburg performs outreach ministry by repairing homes in Appalachia.

MICHAEL J. GRIFFIN, CPA, controller at Erv Smith Services Inc. in Eau Claire, has been an avid fundraiser for the Easter Seals Impact Campaign for more than 25 years.

He was named outstanding fundraiser for 2007 at the Easter Seals State Recognition Banquet in May 2007.

SUSAN M. HENCKEL, CPA is a wish granter for Make-A-Wish Foundation of Wisconsin.

MATTHEW ALAN JANSEN, CPA, staff accountant at TDS Telecom in Madison, is an assistant camp counselor at Wisconsin Lions Camp in Rosholt where he assists visually impaired campers by ensuring they have a safe and fun week at camp.

CHARLOTTE J. LIDDICOAT, CPA, a sole practitioner in Sheboygan, has served as a big sister with Big Brothers Big Sisters of Sheboygan County for more than eight years. As a big sister, she mentors a young girl and meets with her once a week to do fun activities.

FRED T. LUNDIN, CPA, managing shareholder at Koenig & Lundin, SC in Wausau, is president of the Wausau Region Chamber of Commerce. He has been on the Board for more than a decade, serving as treasurer and president-elect before assuming his current post.

MURIEL L. MARX, CPA is a tutor for Literacy Services of Wisconsin Inc. in Milwaukee.

LUCRETIA S. MATTSON, CPA, DBA, CFP, retired accounting professor at UW-Eau Claire, has served on the Board of ARC-Eau Claire for 11 years. As treasurer, she signs the checks and helps guide the direction of the organization and its activities. ARC serves cognitively disabled citizens through case management, guardianships and one-day camps twice a year.

GENE J. MILLER, CPA, retired, is a hospice volunteer for Wheaton Franciscan Hospice in Milwaukee. He visits patients in home hospice and provides respite care for family caregivers.

ADAM J. MUELLER, CPA, senior auditor at Wipfli LLP in Wausau, tracks online donations for the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life. He also developed a campaign to encourage and motivate participants in their fundraising efforts.

ROBERT P. NIEDERMANN, CPA, a CPA at Sitzberger, Widmann & Co. SC in Brookfield, has been actively involved in Waukesha County 4-H for 11 years. He runs the Model Railroad Project in which young people ages 8 to 19 build operating sections of an H.O. scale railroad, that are exhibited at the Waukesha County Fair and Trainfest.

SANDRA R. PREBEG, CPA, senior tax specialist at Badgerland Farm Credit in Madison, has served as a 4-H project manager for more than 20 years. She has been a wildlife and environmental education leader and received a national award for exemplary volunteer leadership with 4-H Youth in Wildlife and Fisheries Programs in 1990. In addition, she teaches farm animal safety to local youth on behalf of the Farm Bureau in Dane County.

HOWARD M. SCHNOLL, CPA, senior vice president of RBC Dain Rauscher in Milwaukee, has served on the Board of Milwaukee World Festival Inc. (Summerfest) for more than 17 years. He has been involved in setting policies and reviewing budgets and finances.

JON J. SCHULTZ, CPA, manager-cost and analysis at Manpower Inc. in Milwaukee, is a big brother with Big Brothers Big Sisters in Milwaukee.

JOHN N. TESENSKY, CPA, chief executive officer of Zenith Companies LLC in Cedarburg, raises money for the Cedarburg Preservation Society by selling tickets and running the concession stand at the Rivoli, a local movie theater in Cedarburg.

LAURA E. VOGEL, CPA, a tax trust officer at M&I Wealth Management in Milwaukee, has served on the Parent Advisory Council for Muskego Schools and makes connections for parents of children with special needs.

MICHAEL R. WIMMER, a CPA at Miller Brewing Company in Milwaukee, volunteers for Interfaith Caregiving Network in Waukesha. He provides maintenance and outdoor cleanup assistance to elderly and low-income residents. He also volunteers at the Annual National Veterans Wheelchair Games.

PATRICIA A. WOJTYCKSKI, CPA, managing partner at Freuck, Strutz & Wojtycki LLC in Greenfield, is a greeter at the Wisconsin Humane Society in Milwaukee. She answers questions related to behavior, socialization and other miscellaneous inquiries.

DUANE J. ZABOROWSKI, CPA, senior manager at Virchow, Krause & Company LLP in Wausau, assists the Performing Arts Foundation in Wausau with fundraising, soliciting new donors, selecting and scheduling performances and advising the organization with financial matters. He also volunteers with fundraising, youth activities and charity raffles for the Knights of Columbus.

KATHLEEN M. ZWICKY, CPA volunteers for the Wisconsin Donor Network.